

- Roksnet Solutions LLC is using X-Road software for the global interoperability building under the exclusive license No 22-1/14-00731/019 issued by the Estonian Ministry of Economic Affairs and Communications.
- X-Road is an Estonian e-Government interoperability engine between different governmental and private entities existing databases and portals.
- In addition, if you have existing databases and portals in several governmental bodies, the X-Road technology enables to easily connect them and automatically build new e-Services like Estonia has.
- Our ready-made solution offers your professionals the opportunity of building up a modern, interoperable and the OOP principles following e-Government step-by-step in a few months.
- Implementation package: €20 000